Serving God together with Connie in Rwanda

This is the first time that Connie was able to travel with me since she broke her shoulder in July 2020

In Gisenyi, last week, Connie taught the Pastors' wives on the importance of the inner life and how they can be a support and encouragement to their husbands. It was so encouraging to see the response of the women to Connie's ministry. They said, "our husbands need to hear this!" Connie made some awesome friends this week.

At the end of the first week of training, we had a special opportunity to present students with a certificate of completion of Biblical Counseling courses 1 & 2. We also presented them with a book that Connie and I wrote on Biblical Counseling. This helped them learn both the theory and practice of helping people work through their difficulties with the Word of God and the Spirit of God.

This week as Connie left for the States, I traveled to Bihembe where I am in the middle of training a group of Anglican Pastors and they are a blessing. They are so hungry to understand more of God's Word and Romans is proving to be the message they needed. Tomorrow I finish the first part by teaching Romans 8: the great revelation of God's love!

We spent a lot of time in small groups as I wanted them to experience the joy of learning Romans on their own. I also met my long lost brother, Pastor Steven!.

2022 is going to be busy & fruitful!

Right now, 2022 is shaping up to be our busiest, most fruitful year since Connie and I started with GTN. We are praying about and planning trips to Nepal, Rwanda, Ethiopia, South Sudan and that's just in the first 5 months of 2022! I'm also praying that Sri Lanka will reopen and we can resume training there.

You are an important part of our ministry!

I believe this is going to be a powerful year of ministry overseas, and we value your investment. We're approaching the end of the year and that is a time when many consider a special gift. We know you have many opportunities, but Connie and I invite you to consider giving a special gift to our ministry. Our regular support covers about 80% of our ministry and God uses your year end giving to set us free for wherever he leads us.
