To reach the unreached

Serving since 2013

2024 has been a challenging year!
First, problems in Nepal have slowed us down
Second, Heart problems are resurfacing for Steve

Nepal

After an amazing trip in February, we were looking to return in April

But, things changed as the Nepali Government began to move against Christian Pastors and Foreign Missionaries who work with Christian Pastors. I can't go into detail, but suffice it to say for the present, we cannot continue our ministry in Nepal. This is heartbreaking for Connie and me as we have grown to love the people here.

Please don't share this information or any of these pictures.

Burundi

Burundi is developing into an exciting field. In late May, we went to Burundi. Connie and I went a week early to teach God's people on parenting. The reception was amazing. So much so that they have invited us to come a week early again in September (September 17-29) to teach on marriage. They are planning for us to teach 2 days at a marriage retreat! We are so excited for this opportunity!

Then, we will complete our 2 year training with the first class of pastors and leaders with Chuckk Gerwig and Doug Posey. I will be teaching a class called How to be a Disciple Making Leader. I am so excited for this opportunity

Health

This is where I really need your prayer
In June, I went into to the cardiologist for a routine echo-cardiogram and it revealed that my heart function (called Ejection Fraction) had dropped to 30%. To help, they installed an internal defibrillator/pacemaker Combination. Unfortunately 1 of the 3 wires connected to my heart is not working properly and so it has not helped. Please Pray that we can get this resolved quickly so that I will be strong enough to go in September! I will let you know how all of this turns out

Thanks for allowing us to share God's work with you. We value your investment in prayer. The travel seems to get a little more difficult each year, so please pray for physical and spiritual strength. We continue to trust God for your generosity as you invest in us. Your partnership is a great blessing. Please know that every dollar you give goes to cover ministry trips and expenses.
